Please note that the conference starts with a reception and dinner on Sunday evening June 11. The gala dinner is on Friday, June 16. We strongly recommend that you participate in the full week-long program of activities.

Breakfasts and dinners are included in the room rates. Several dinners, including the gala dinner, are specially arranged for conference participants and their guests.

All conference activities and social events will take place at the Rithymna Beach Hotel. Reservations must be made by May 1, 2017 to guarantee a room at this hotel. Under special arrangement, the conference rates for June 11 through June 17 are:

Double room	€170 per day (half board)
Single room	€126 per day (half board)

For children sharing a parent's room or third person sharing a double room or for participants arriving before June 11 or departing after June 17, the rates are posted on creteconf.org

Those wishing to stay in other hotels or pensions on the island may do so by arranging their own accommodations and transportation to the conference. However, participation at the gala dinner and all other activities organized through the Rithymna (included in the above hotel rates) must be paid separately as listed on the website.
